

2010 VESTRY NOMINEES (in alphabetical order)

Alice Elsner

Alice Elsner is a lifelong Episcopalian and was married for 27 years to Harold, an Episcopal Priest. She taught Pre-K for more than 25 years and worked in the Accounting Department of the Diocese of Southeast Florida before moving to North Carolina. Alice has been a member of St. Tim's since 2005 and has enjoyed becoming a part of the parish family. Alice is a Stephen Minister, LEM, Convention Delegate and a member of the Worship Commission. She volunteers with Vacation Bible School during the summer and weekly in the office as well as with other activities at church. Her vision for St. Tim's is "a transformation in each of us as Christ's love and light shines through us to those in our community and the world."

John Guglielmi

John Guglielmi and his wife, Chiquita, have been members of St. Timothy's for nine years. They have two grown children and seven grandchildren and enjoy traveling and watching both Duke football and basketball.

John has served on two vestries—St. Paul's Wilkesboro and Emmanuel Church Harrisonburg, VA—and served both as Senior and Junior Warden at St. Paul's. John has also served on both the Executive Council and the Episcopal Foundation of the Episcopal Diocese of Western North Carolina. He was elected twice to be a delegate to General Convention. Presently at St. Tim's, John is a member of the Finance Committee and a LEM.

John would feel it would be a honor to be elected to be a member of St. Timothy's Vestry.

Skip Larson

Skip Larson has been a member of St. Timothy's for 50 years. In that period of time he has been a member of the choir, served as a LEM and is currently a member of the Worship Commission. He has also served on the Vestry before, with one of those years as Junior Warden. Skip believes the coming years will bring great changes and challenges to our congregation and he looks forward to those situations. "I have never been prouder to be a member of this congregation and of the growth and enthusiasm that I now see happening at St. Tim's," he says.

Skip is married to Jean—31 years!—and they live in Clemmons. They have one son Scott who lives and works in Charlotte and who is getting married in May. Their daughter lives in Oregon with her husband and the Larson's beautiful three-year-old granddaughter.

Skip has recently retired after 20 years as a systems support analyst at WFU School of Medicine. He has been volunteering two days a week as an interviewer at Crisis Control Ministry and one morning a week in the office at St. Tim's.

Amy Mann

Amy Mann has been a member at St. Timothy's for over a year and a half. She currently serves as the chairperson for the Evangelism Commission, is co-leader of the Devout Stout fellowship group and taught Summer Brigade Sunday school. Amy has prior employment experience she feels will complement the Vestry. These positions include parish administrator for Trinity Episcopal Church and assistant to the director of Chattahoochee Christian Preschool. She is currently employed as a licensed insurance professional with State Farm Insurance.

Amy is married to Travis Mann and has three children Tanner, Ashlyn and Aubrey. She is also grateful to be a part of the St. Tim's family and the welcoming atmosphere of the parish. Amy was baptized as an infant in the Episcopal Church and has returned full circle to the Episcopal Church after being confirmed and married in the Catholic Church.

"I would welcome the opportunity to serve God, the Church, and my fellow parishioners through a leadership position. I am excited to see our parish thrive and feel called to offer my talents to continue this mission."

—And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.—Romans 8:28

Nick Meacham

Having grown up in the Church of England Nick Meacham understands the benefits of having a strong church within a community and working together on outreach, education and growth in the church.

For the past five years Nick has served as a Communications Coordinator for NC BioNetwork. Prior to this, Nick who hails from England was the youngest politician elected as a member of Council for a metropolitan area. Nick served on the following cabinets; Health, Youth and Cultural Services, Urban Planning, Education, Lifelong Learning and e-Governance Cabinet Advisory Committees. Nick also served as a School Governor at Lightwoods Junior School in Oldbury England.

He currently serves on the Executive committee of the Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce

Technology Council, and is co chair of the W-S Technology Council PR Committee. Nick serves on numerous committees including editorial advisor and article writer for a national life science magazine and strategic planning. Nick's education includes a B.A. degree in Political Science from London Guildhall University and a Masters degree in Education from Western Carolina University.

Nick and his wife Ann relocated from the Asheville area to Winston-Salem late last summer.

Cathryn Raines

Cathryn Raines was born in Baldwin, New York (on Long Island) and lived there for 18 years. Her education includes a BS in Conservation and a BS in Recreation Resources Administration both from NC State University. She also has a MBA from Bryan School of Business, UNCG.

Cathryn married Mark Raines on March 14, 1998 and has two children: Christopher Kirkham (21, senior at App State) and Matthew Raines (10, 5th grader at Whitaker). She works full-time at Hanesbrands as Office Manager for the CEO.

Cathryn has been at St. Timothy's since 2003. Her current and past activities include children's Sunday school teacher, secretary for ECW, member of search committee for the Director of Music Ministries, choir member, women's retreat chairperson, Day of Caring participant, hospitality co-chair for ECW and Sinner's Dinner participant. Her personal interests include cooking and eating (not necessarily in that order!), walking, hiking, travel, gardening (sort of!), and she loves to watch old movies. She is a lifetime member of Weight Watchers and tries to exercise several times a week either at the YMCA or outdoors.